Building Your Dreams On A "Stone Foundation"

As the 1975-76 School year comes to an end, the dreams of the student body have been expressed in many different ways. Some of these dreams have come true, while others have not. We, the yearbook staff, have captured and tried to compile these dreams in pictures and in words as a special record to be looked upon and remembered as cherished memories in the Golden years to come. We now present to you The 1975-76 Livingstonian built for you with much happiness and many dreams on a "Stone Foundation."

“Building Our Dreams On A Stone Foundation”

Converging upon this hallowed place
For close to a century of autumn opening days
And springtime commencement convocations
We have come from various states within our land
And from distant spots throughout the world.
The maples have grown taller to spread a broader, welcoming shade.
The steadfast oaks have sent their roots even deeper into the rugged soil.
Their presence has reflected strength and represented Wisdom with each new homecoming and with each new Founder's Day.
This place of learning is to us a Living Stone and a firm foundation.
It has nurtured many who have come and gone before us.
Great men and women have trod these familiar paths.
We now walk upon them with hopeful but unsteady steps.
The way seems brighter as we discover truths within these heritage filled walls,
For staunch pioneers have paved the way with their unyielding struggles and with their fervent prayers.
We walk upon this memorable spot, and we learn myriad facts about its Greatness. We are aware of the legacies bequeathed by those who Passed this way.

Ours is a stone foundation because our fathers made it so with their labor
And with their dedication.
Our teachers have been great, and they have moved across the stage of time
And left our Precious Stone enriched by their mementoes and their contributions.
The sands from our Majestic Stone have not drifted aimlessly, but through the Eventful years, they have moved with sure direction into places of high calling
In the fields of human endeavor.
And each grain has contributed its peculiar Message to the overall sermon of the Eternal Stone.
Every day we hear echoes of their greatness as they come to us upon the wings and waves of media.
New grains continue to gather upon this Mighty Stone to make forever stronger.
O great and wonderful Stone, the strength of our lives: May God's blessings ever Be upon you and upon those who seek knowledge at your altar. Strong Stone, Stand forever!
Many scholars and many late bloomers are yet to come who will build their dreams on your stone foundation.

DEDICATION OF THE 1975-76 LIVINGSTONIAN Mrs. Judith M. Settle

The 1976 Livingstonian is dedicated to Mrs. Judith M. Settle for her commitment to and her involvement in the total life of students.

Mrs. Settle, a native of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, attended Winston-Salem State University where she received the Bachelor of Science Degree, and the Masters of Education with a major in Counseling and Guidance from the University of North Carolina in Charlotte.

Mrs. Settle's professional career includes teaching positions in the Durham City Schools in Durham, North Carolina and the White Plains Public Schools of White Plains, New York. She came to Livingstone College in 1969 as Director of Goler Hall, a residence hall for women at that time. She has served since 1972 as Director of Housing at Livingstone College.

Since coming to Livingstone, she has served as advisor for the Goler Hall House Council, the Young Women's Missionary Society, and the Inter-residence Assembly. Committee Memberships have included the Student Life Committee, the Teacher Education Committee, the Student Services Director's Council and the Administrative Council. Also, the Livingstone College Parents Association was organized under her leadership.

Mrs. Settle is married to Dr. Joseph C. Settle, Director of Student Services of Livingstone College. They have one daughter, Joy Evangline. And Mrs. Settle is a member of the African Methodist Episcopal Zion Church.

Mrs. Settle has initiated and participated in numerous campus programs and activities and often travels with students in support of the teams and other student groups.

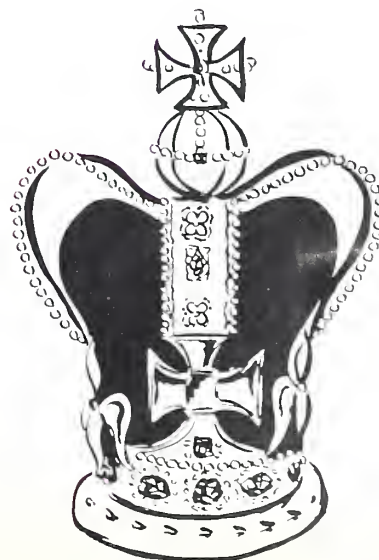

Through her guidance and encouragement, opportunities for leadership roles and expressions of talents are always present.

The establishing of learning centers within each residence hall for the purpose of study, counseling, tutoring, and interest-groups activities is an example of her commitment and involvement in developing the total person and contributing positively to campus life at Livingstone.

It is because of her generosity and kindness in going beyond the call of duty to help Livingstone College in general and the student body in particular that we dedicate our 1975-1976 yearbook to her.

One of Livingstone's Many Queens

A Special Dedication to Mr. Bobby Aldrich . . .

Who Made the Publication of This Livingstonian A Success!

The President of Livingstone College

F. George Shipman

A yearbook is a joint endeavor of students, classes and organizations of the college to capture and record the rich and rewarding experiences that characterize college life. Usually these experiences are recorded and exhibited in the yearbook via textual, photographic and graphic representation with a thematic thread running throughout. The theme for this year's efforts is "Building Your Dreams On A Stone Foundation".

The responsibility of today's college student is to set and achieve the goals of tomorrow. The achievement of firm goals is enhanced if the proper foundation stones are laid during a student's four-year tenure here. In preparing for that responsibility you have come to a college where the goals of service to God and fellowman have taken on a significant meaning. Important foundation stones for effective service are (1) awareness of the great potential you have for service, (2) understanding of the need to serve for self-actualization, (3) commitment to ideals characterized by devotion to truth and (4) love of God and His creation. The activities reflected in the yearbook give eloquent testimony to your commitment to those foundation stones.

In the pages that follow you illustrate how students are preparing for tomorrow while at the same time enjoying the experiences of today. All that you do today, whether in study or in recreation, in seriousness or in joy, takes on meaning in light of your destiny tomorrow.

Love undergirds all our aspirations, supports our efforts and crowns our achievements.

"Love all God's creation
the whole and every grain of seed in it.
Love every leaf,
every ray of God's light
Love the animals, love the plants, love everything.
If you love everything, you will perceive the divine mystery in things.
Once you perceive it, you will begin to comprehend it better every day.
And you will come at last to love the whole world with an all-embracing love."

To the Board of Trustees, President F. George Shipman, Administrative Staff, Faculty, Student Body, and Alumni — we urge you to “Build Your Dreams on a Stone Foundation.”

We, the staff of the Livingstonian, have tried to make this yearbook a publication of historical and cultural significance. I cannot say, that the road was easy; sometimes the mountains seemed almost too high to climb, but we tried to make this yearbook one of the greatest and most outstanding ever published.

Let us continue “Building Our Dreams on a Stone Foundation”, for if we do this, we will truly be dedicated Livingstonians.

After burning the midnight oil for many, many nights, we, the 1976 Livingstonian Yearbook Staff, are able to present to you the 1976 Livingstonian.

One will never know the amount of hard work and dedication that goes into the publishing of a yearbook, and sometimes there are only a faithful few that work beside you all the way.

But one learns to keep on going, overcome obstacles and pray for success. I would like to thank everyone associated with the 1975-1976 Livingstonian, especially Mrs. Doris Jones and Mr. Garland Kelsey for their dedicated assistance.

To be a queen of any organization on Livingstone Campus is indeed an honor and a challenge! It requires each young woman to represent her organization well; possessing qualities of beauty, inside and out, intelligence, talent and a warm, outgoing personality.

As a queen, one participates in many exciting activities and social events. She is, in many instances, the center of attention. Perhaps the most exciting and memorable events of a Livingstone Queen is the Annual Homecoming Parade and the Annual Coronation is Miss Livingstone.

The Livingstone Queens are uniquely special and exceptional young ladies, but then so are all the ladies of Livingstone College.

HOMECOMING 1975!!!

It was the beginning of an exciting week, the Dawning of a bright Monday morning, as the Seniors got up for their last Wakeup Morning to start the Homecoming Spirit off right!!!

On a bright Homecoming Monday morning . . .

parents came to visit . . .

close friends returned . . .

students made their way reluctantly to classes . . .

the food was delicious . . .

Guys and Gals got together . . .

... and we all relaxed for an exciting week of festivities and fun!!

On Wednesday night, the Annual Coronation of Miss Livingstone was held in New Trent Gymnasium. Marie Turner, Miss Livingstone, her escort, Carl Walker, family, and friends gathered together for a beautiful picture. Kitty Cat, the queen's jester, makes a royal toast to Miss Livingstone and her court.

The SOLAR RAYS, on Thursday night entertained with their soulful JAMS!

Something NEW this year? Why, of course! The First Annual Halloween Party for the Children of Salisbury, N. C. got under way in Old Trent Gym, and the children, both young and old, had a BALL!!!

Styling and Profiling!!

HALLOWEEN!!!

Geraldine or Clifford Barnett??

You're as young as you feel!

"Hey, Ricky, they're bobbing for apples here!"

"No, honey, There're no such things as vampires."

"And Captain Hook said to his fellow pirates . . ."

"You never get too old to play games! Right?"

"See you next year KIDDIES!!!"

A tiny, new oak tree became a part of the Livingstone Family during the Annual Tree Planting Ceremony on Friday of Homecoming Week. After the Special Assembly for all the fellow Livingstonians, students, faculty, friends, and alumni gathered in Aggrey Student Union for a really nice dinner.

Later, everyone bought tickets for the Homecoming Game, the Homecoming dance and of course, the exciting Annual Startime Revue!!!

The Kid got carried away!
He asked for two pieces!

STARTIME REVUE

Sass was ready...

Gail Bundy was too,

Darrell
Waters had the organ...

... and we all knew what to do!

JAM!

JAM!!

JAM!!!

"Just As Long As We Have Love"

The Unique Isolations!

"Love Won't Let Me Wait"

A Variety of Talent!

Mr. Magic!

Ladies' Choice!!

I didn't know they could sound so good !!!

A welcomed visitor!

"Look at me!
I'm in love."

Gospel is soul music too.

The CRYSTALS!!!

Finally, Saturday morning came and the day was just perfect for a beautiful parade . . . and so we had one!

Ready Marching Bears Of 'Stone!?!

Then Let's get it on! Get It On!! GET IT ON!!!

The rhythmic Marching Bears danced to the sound of good soul music, and behind them came the many Ebony Beauties of Livingstone College.

After the Homecoming Parade and the First Half of a winning football game for L.C. . . .

there was a short ceremony honoring the lovely queens of Livingstone College.

Like a crowded bear's den, students, parents, alumni, faculty and friends watched the magnificent Marching Bears, and the Fighting Bears' VICTORY over St. Paul (33-0). Everybody was Happy . . .

. . . even the lady with the new car.

The game was over but . . .

. . . the fun had just begun!
That Saturday night the campus of LC. was hopping and bumping to the music of the ELIMINATORS and SMOKE!

Sunday ended the Homecoming festivities as the students watched a fantastic movie in the Little Theater call STRAIT JACKET, starring Joan Crawford.

You know, Homecoming was great!

Homecoming was over, the things got back to the same old normal routine.

Spades was the game of the week . . .

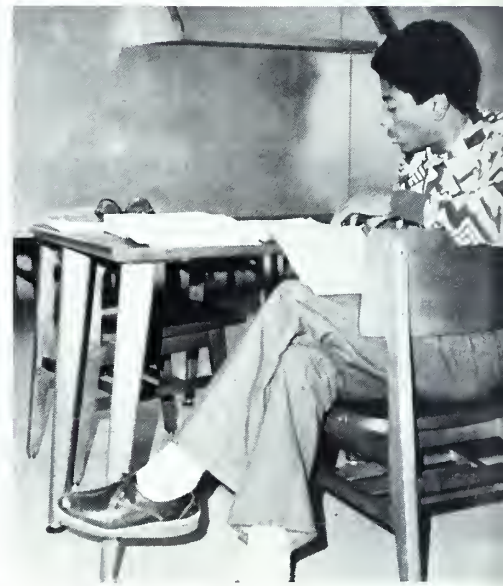

the food returned to normal . . .

there was another day of hard work . . .

We got ready for exams . . .

and even though L. C.'s football games were over, that sure didn't stop the men of Dancy Hall from enjoying a good game on television.

GREEKS FELLOWSHIPS AND ORGANIZATIONS

Getting Together!

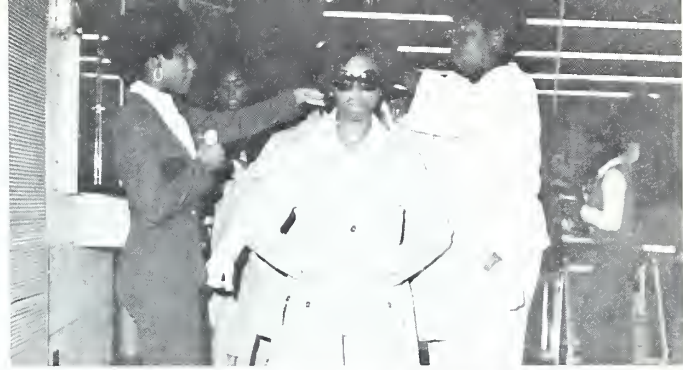

GREEKS AND FELLOW

Since the early 1900's, Greeks and Social Fellowships have existed at Livingstone College. Greeks are divided into two main categories; fraternities (for men) and sororities (for women), and the same is true for most social fellowships. These Greeks and Fellowships are simply bodies of men and women interested in participating in school and community functions. "Their foundations are cemented with love and devotion, and strengthened by loyalty.”* To be a Greek or a member of a social fellowship means going through a pledging period, maintaining a certain average, going to Rush parties, giving block shows, raising money to finance high school students and college freshmen with scholarships, giving talent shows, helping people in the communities, visiting Rest Homes, and just having a great time being with brothers and sisters.

We love music; any kind of music and under the direction of Mr. Henry Duncombe, we make music all year long! We are Livingstone's Magnificent Marching Blue Bears and we are composed of majorettes, color guards, and fantastic musicians playing such instruments as tubas, French horns, clarinets, saxophones, trombones, flutes, percussions, trumpets, and baritones. We are a serious-minded, hard working group of men and women, and our goal is perfection in the field of music. We are proud to be a part of the STONE foundation of Livingstone College!

The 1975 Grid Season

Although the “Fighting Bears” didn’t finish near the top of the CIAA as expected, they did continue to be winners under the direction of Coach Baxter Holman. Highlights of the season were the victory over Va. State and former LC Coach John Marshall; the homecoming victory over St. Paul (33-0), and a big upset victory over Kentucky State (28-0). The “Bears” had three players bestowed with past season honors; they just happened to be the tri-captains. (1) Johnny Miller – All CIAA, all NAIA, Associated Press All American, and Mutual Black Network All American, the first players from LC to be an All American. (2) Linwood Howard – All NAIA, All American–Second Team. (3) Larry Lee – All CIAA.

Congratulations Fighting Bears and good luck in the future! Coach Holman, the Sports Staff would like to wish you the best luck wherever you coach next year, and thank you for raising the football team to respectability while at “Livingstone College.” God bless you.

LIVINGSTONE'S BASKETBALL TEAM

A Sport's Wrap-up

For the basketball Fighting Bears, 1975-76 was a year in which they just could not "get it all together." Coach Willie Porter began his second year at the helm. "We are starting a new basketball program. We feel we have a good group of freshmen. We will approach each game with optimism," he said.

There were 13 freshmen on a 17-man Bear squad. Nathan Williamson, a 6-7 center from Fayetteville, who was a converted forward, was the lone senior in the starting lineup. Michael Epps, co-captain, of Winston-Salem, and Melvin Boone of Suffolk, Va., both 6-1 freshmen started at guard.

Reginald McDougal, 6-5, and Reginald Blaylock 6-6, both of Winston-Salem, operated at the front line.

Gary Latta, co-captain, a senior guard and Tommy Johnson, a sophomore forward, both of Charlotte, were members of last year's team. Andrew Harris, a junior transfer from Wingate, and a former standout at Salisbury High was a new addition.

With an overall record of 4 wins, 2 by forfeit, and 8 losses 0-4 in the CIAA, Coach Porter resigned on January 26, 1976. Athletic director Frederick D. Ponder, after taking over the team on January 24, in the Bears game with Barber-Scotia, led the Bears in their final 12 games of the season.

The Bears only other win was against CIAA opponent Shaw University at Trent Gymnasium by the score of 79-72. The cellar dwelling Bears ended the season with an overall record of 5-20, 3-13 in the CIAA. The Bears scored over 90 points in four of their last five encounters with conference competition.

Hope I don't blow this layup.

If you could put all of the trophies Milton has won during his college career on top of each other, they would stand at least 200 ft. high! One of Milton's big wins this year was in the CAROLINA KARATE OPEN TOURNAMENT IN CHAPEL HILL, N. C. The D. C. native took first place in the lightweight division and Kata (precision drill), and took top honors in the tournament by winning the Grand Championship! Good luck in the future. Donald Smith

Allen Hunter

Clinton Graham has graduated, taking his great golf ability with him. He will be missed, but not by his opponents. But taking up the slack are: Donald (Don) Smith and Allen Hunter. Smith, a proven veteran, will add leadership to the team; while Hunter will add that extra punch to make the Gold Team Winners. Do it Bears!

Although they will have to play without the services of an ill Jerry Partee, the team will still be in the thick of things. The team will also have two young ladies joining the squad. Pam Hurt, and Natalie Campbell, in addition to freshman Bruce Woodson. Along with the other veterans, the Netters will be on the mothership connection, winning as usual. Right on Coach Ponder!

FOUNDER'S DAY AT LIVINGSTONE

Burial ground of Dr. Joseph Charles Price, 1st president of Livingstone College and founder.

Founder's Day Memorial

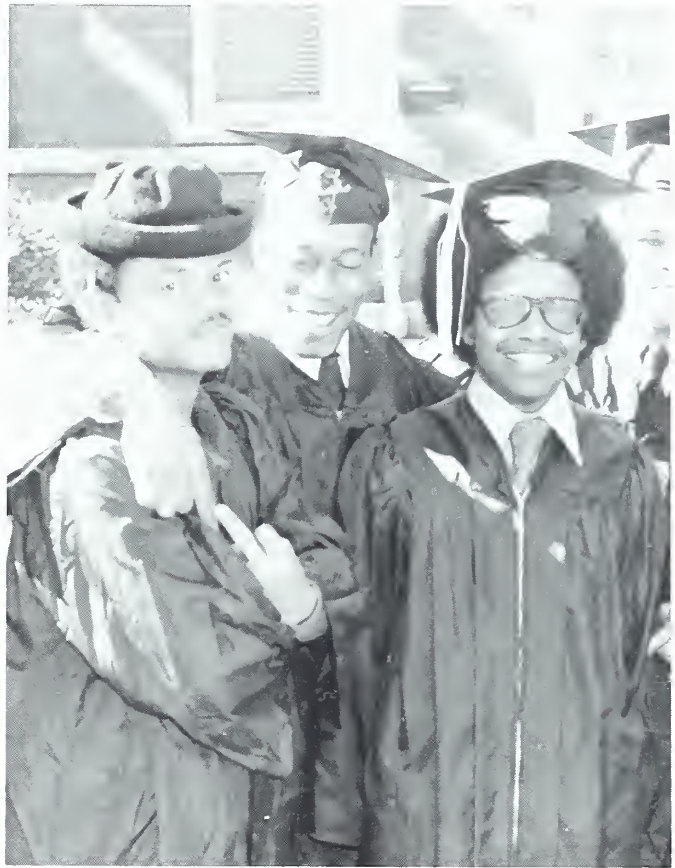

A Great Day To Remember

FOUNDER'S DAY GUIDES AND MRS. DORIS JONES

Oh Happy Day!

O! Livingstone, My Livingstone!

O! Livingstone, My Livingstone!
Thy dear old name we sing,
While memories cluster thick and fast,
And closer to us cling.
Beneath thy maples and thy oaks
The zephyred breezes blow,
Just as they will in years to come,
No matter where we go.

O! Livingstone, My Livingstone!
When thou art old with age,
Thou, too shalt hold a noble place
That's bright on mem'ry's page,
And in the sky no cloud shall be—
Instead, the sun shall beam, Prosperity shall live always Amid its golden gleam.

O! Livingstone, My Livingstone!
Thy students come and go,
The moments fly, the years go by
With all their weal and woe.
Along with fleet and nimble feet
Oh, hasten on thy way,
And fling the light of wisdom out
Across the Wand'rer's way.

O! Livingstone, My Livingstone!
Upon thy campus wide,
In numbers many students roam—
Some from the other side;
And still they love; we can but hope
That they may e'er be true
To both thy names and colors too—
The modest black and blue.

Fonvielle—Richardson

Images

Many days I saw myself in the mirror.
I saw myself in the glasses in the stores I passed .
My image was reflected in the water and the Chrome,
But I saw only a shadow of myself.
For I saw the real me in the dark,
When I looked inside of myself.

He is a professionalist in the theater and worked very hard to make each production a success. Mr. Freeman is a graduate of Winston-Salem State University. He is the director of the Urban Arts Program of the community Arts Council in Winston-Salem. He is also the director of the Amani Urite Players, of Winston-Salem. Mr. Freeman coordinates the centennials, a professional musical theater group, for the Little Theater of Winston-Salem. He has acted with the North Carolina school of fine arts Summer Festival Theater. Mr. Freeman, we the Julia B. Duncan Players, thank you, love you and hope that you'll stay with us until the curtain falls at the end of the play of "Life".

God! I'll be glad when it's over!
